AFTER FOUR DAYS OF HARD FIGHTING TAKES GOWDZIN VICTORY

Bitter Struggle Between Soldiers on Both Sides, First One Having Advantage, Then the Other
VILLA SAYS WILL HAVE THE CITY BY SUNDAY
Rebels Delivered Three Assaults Before Victory Was Achieved—Battle Led Into City's Principal Streets

(By Associated Press.)
CONSTITUTIONALIST HEADQUARTERS, ABOVE TORREON, MARCH 27.—(By wire.)—General Villa and his rebel army, after four days of the most bitter fighting, during which victory seemed first with one side and then with the other, occupied Gomez Palacio today.

Lesser both sides have been heavy. The rebels delivered three assaults before permanent success was achieved, and at times the battle extended into the principal streets of the city.

Villa predicts that he will have the city by Saturday or Sunday. A pitiable condition of the battle was the fact that the rebels were so badly wounded that they were unable to do more than a half dozen assaults of the work, but was unable to cope with the situation.

It was the first time a recent Mexican revolution that the rebels were so badly wounded that they were unable to do more than a half dozen assaults of the work, but was unable to cope with the situation.

Garbed in a dusty front suit, a slouch hat and a red handkerchief tied about his neck as in his hand, General Villa, among the ragged, filthy, half-famished soldiers who have fought for him since the outbreak of the revolution, was a conspicuous figure.

General Villa, who has been directing a campaign through the field lines and with a map spread before him, was seen in the city. He is a small, dark, middle-aged man with a mustache and a serious expression.

TO ESTABLISH MILITARY BASE. The principal activity was that of the rebels, but his presence never failed to inspire the soldiers.

The rebels fought and won of intense advantage. Water was scarce and the rebels were forced to dig for it in the streets. The rebels fought, unaffected by the cold, heavy rain of dead and wounded.

General Villa, during pauses in the fighting, was seen to be calmly examining the situation. He did not place himself in the line of fire, but he was always near the front of the fighting.

NORFOLK, Va., March 27.—(By wire.)—The state today passed without division a compromise bill to regulate trading in cotton futures.

It would prohibit sending through the mails or by telegraph information of contracts which do not specify that delivery is to be made on a basic grade, with the option of delivering other grades, the difference between which would be fixed by actual trading in spot cotton, and not arbitrarily, as on exchanges now.

Mayor and Councilman Have Battle of Words

Jesse B. Lee Joins Ranks of Insurgents Following Fire Equipment Discussion
Councilman Jesse B. Lee, of the Fifth ward, hereafter regarded as one of the staunchest supporters of Mayor Woodward in the general council, has joined the ranks of the insurgents.

The breach, which began Thursday morning when Councilman Lee and other members of the board of firemen's affairs were excluded from a meeting of the advisory board of the purchasing department while the purchase of certain fire department equipment was under consideration, widened into open break Friday morning when Councilman Lee called upon the mayor and other members of the board of firemen's affairs to be excluded from a meeting of the advisory board of the purchasing department while the purchase of certain fire department equipment was under consideration.

Hot words were passed by both the councilman and the mayor. It is said, and when the latter left the mayor's office he declared, "I could get no sense out of him. There's but one way in which to get along with Jim Woodward, and that is to always agree with him. He is a man who will do anything to get his own way."

Cloudy Weather and Possibly Rain Predicted Saturday

Cloudy weather Friday night and Saturday is the forecast of the weather man. It is said that in all probability there will be rain on Saturday.

The temperature will remain about the same as it was Friday. The thermometer recorded a degree at 7 o'clock in the morning, and thereafter the mercury continued to rise gradually but about noon.

WANT TWO NEW TRAINS ON GEORGIA RAILROAD

Sweeping Revision of Schedules Proposed to Railroad Commission

Permit for the inauguration of two new through daily passenger trains between Atlanta and Augusta, and for the right to discontinue two suburban trains—one between Lithonia and Atlanta and the other between Covington and Atlanta—has been asked of the state railroad commission by the Georgia railroad. Authority for other changes of more or less importance are asked in the petition of the Georgia railroad.

The commission has set Monday, April 13, as the date when it will hear arguments for and against the petition.

The two new passenger trains will be known as Nos. 19 and 20. They will carry through sleepers between Atlanta, Louisville and Cincinnati, making close connection at Atlanta and Augusta with the Southern railway and Atlantic Coast Line. "It is expected," says the petition, "that these trains will give Augusta, Charleston and other intermediate points east of Atlanta, what they need, but have never had."

No. 19 will leave Atlanta daily at 11:30 a. m., arriving at Atlanta at 4:30 p. m. It will make stops at the following intermediate points: Thomson, Greensboro, Madison, Social Circle and Covington.

No. 20 will leave Atlanta daily at 11:15 p. m. and arrive at Augusta at 5:15 p. m. It will stop only at the following intermediate points: Lithonia, Covington, Madison, Greensboro, and Thomson.

In connection with the establishment of these new trains the Georgia railroad desires to make numerous schedule changes in several of its main lines and branch line passenger trains, according to the petition, closer connection and better service between the principal towns on the system.

The reasons recited by the company for its desire to discontinue the Lithonia and Covington accommodation trains is that the Stone Mountain electric line has absorbed the bulk of the travel between Atlanta and Stone Mountain, and that as a result these trains do not now pay operating expenses.

Other changes which the company desires to make is to have the Union point accommodation now reaching Atlanta at 9:30 a. m. arrive here at 8:30 a. m. and have this train leave Atlanta in the afternoon at 5:30 instead of 5 p. m., as at present.

The company also asks permission to change the schedules of its through night trains, Nos. 3 and 4, and also to eliminate all stops at intermediate points except Thomson, Greensboro, Social Circle, Covington, Conyers and Lithonia.

ABOLISH PHONE NUMBER IN CALLING FIRE ENGINES

In Case of Fire, Tell Operator to Give You "Fire Department"

The telephone number of the fire department of Atlanta has been abolished.

When you want the fire department, simply say, "Fire department, and you will get what you ask for."

Instead of operator telephones in the chief's office, the headquarters and each of the various fire stations over the city, the fire department now has a branch exchange, like the "Terminal station," the city hall, etc.

With the difference that these branch exchanges have certain numbers which you call, whereas the fire department exchange has no number whatever.

There is an operator, a man, on duty on the fire department exchange all the time, day and night. Not the same man, but three men working eight hours each. You get the exchange, and the operator on duty gives you whatever office in the department or whatever station you ask for. No office or station has a straight line telephone, but all go through the branch exchange.

These fire department operators know the city by heart, so that when a telephone alarm of fire comes in they know instantly the nearest fire station. They don't have to stop and look it up. If a person, for instance, at the corner of West Peachtree and Pine streets should call and say his house is on fire (giving his street address), the fire department operator would connect him at once with the North avenue station.

Also, there are five trunk lines into the fire department exchange, and two are held in reserve always, so that you are entitled to get the fire department when you call, and if the operator tells you the line is busy you should not hang up, but should insist on getting the fire department.

COMB SAGE TEAR IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Looks Dark, Glossy, Thick

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good brown which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering sage and the mossy mixing at home. All we need is to get the ready-to-use product called "Wet's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle.

It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time by morning the gray hair disappears.

What delights the hair with "Wet's Sage and Sulphur" is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive to the eye, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—(Adv.)

WOODWARD NOT IN FAVOR OF SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

Says City Can Begin Next Year and Build One or Two Schools Yearly

Mayor Woodward is not in favor of a school bond issue because he believes the city can appropriate from its current revenue something like $75,000 each year for several years to build new school houses.

As he says, if one or two new schools every year could be built from current revenue, then the overcrowded condition of the schools would be relieved and there would be no necessity for a bond issue.

From current revenue for 1914 the city took $87,500 to pay for the new fire and police alarm system. From current revenue for 1913 the city took $200,000 to pay for the crematory.

These two appropriations knocked a big hole in the finance sheet both years, but fortunately such appropriations do not have to be made every year, and hence the city will be in much better financial condition in 1915.

RESOLUTION TO FINANCE W. S. WIER'S CAMPAIGN

Labor's Legislative league unanimously adopted a resolution at its meeting Thursday night agreeing to pay the entrance fees and finance the campaign of Wm. S. Wier, candidate for county commissioner, and K. A. Albright, its candidate for election to the house of representatives.

The resolution stipulates that no one is authorized to solicit or accept funds for the campaign of these candidates, but the organization will get actively behind the movement to elect the two men.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION IS PLANNED BY SUFFRAGISTS

Women Contemplate Giving Big Boost to the Cause in Atlanta May 2

It may be a mass meeting on the steps of the state capitol. It may be a convention in the house of representatives or it may be an open air picnic in Grant park, but it will be something big—the demonstration that Atlanta suffragists will make May 2, the day set by the national association for a nation-wide boost for votes for women. Letters received here from Mrs. Meull McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee of the national association, have drawn the promise from the Georgia state association that in every city in the state a suffrage is organized a demonstration will be made May 2.

Mrs. Mary L. McLendon, president of the Georgia association, says that at Atlanta, Macon, Rome, Athens, Decatur and other towns the suffragists are preparing parades or mass meetings. The three local suffrage organizations have been asked to participate in a mass meeting here. Governor Sloan will be asked to permit it on the steps of the capitol or in the hall of the house of representatives, says Mrs. McLendon, but if neither of these is obtainable it will be held in picnic form in Grant park.

HALF HOLIDAY ASKED. Governor Sloan also has been asked to proclaim a half holiday May 2. This request has been made of President Wilson and of the governor of every state by the national association. Atlanta employers will be asked to close their stores for May 2. Saturday afternoon, so that all men and women will have an opportunity to participate in the demonstration if they will.

According to local suffragists, their organization in Atlanta have grown remarkably the past few weeks. The Atlanta Equal Suffrage association numbers 610 members, while, with the other two organizations, the membership enrolled under the votes for women banner is well above the 1,000 mark.

All three organizations are working hard on sending its members down to the Atlanta theatre, where pretty strong "anti" literature has been distributed that died in the Georgia's Folio. The May 2 demonstration is expected to pave the way for a bill Mrs. McLendon says will be introduced in the legislature this summer to give women the franchise.

Cupid Triumphant Over Stern Parental Protest

MRS. CARL HOWARD FRANCIS—C. H. FRANCIS.

Carl Howard Francis Wins Miss Anna Beatrice Holtzendorf and Also the Blessings of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Holtzendorf, the Bride's Parents

In the announcement by Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Holtzendorf today of the marriage of their daughter, Anna Beatrice, to Mr. Carl Howard Francis, there comes to light a romance in which parental objection was forced to give thoroughfare to Cupid.

To most people March came in like a lion, but to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Howard Francis he came in like a lamb, a docile lambkin with a true lover's hand around his neck; for on that day, Sunday, the young people, instead of going to church, quietly sought ordinary George of Jackson county, and were married.

Dr. and Mrs. Holtzendorf had objected to the match solely on account of the age of their daughter; just sixteen, but when the young people told the bride's parents the other day that their daughter was now Mrs. Francis, both received the parental blessing.

Mr. Francis is the son of Mrs. Francis, of 214 Lee street, West End, where the young people will make their home. He is in the employ of Medlock's Pharmacy, corner Lee and Gordon streets, West End.

WANT WOMEN TO BE MEMBERS OF STATE BAR

The Atlanta Equal Suffrage association Wednesday afternoon at a business meeting in the Ansley hotel, voted its active support to a bill to be introduced in the legislature to allow women to practice law in Georgia, a bill to provide compulsory education, and another bill to raise the age of consent from ten to sixteen years.

The support of these proposed bills was voted upon the recommendation of the Georgia Woman's suffrage association, of which Mrs. Mary L. McLendon is president.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MOVES TO NEW QUARTERS

To Occupy Old Y. M. C. A. Building, Which Has Been Remodeled

Friday was "moving day" for the Atlanta chamber of commerce. Its bulky files of information about Atlanta, and correspondence, and records of "possum" banquets and other achievements, all were being carted across Five Points to the new chamber of commerce building at the corner of Avenue and Pryor street—the old Y. M. C. A. building, thoroughly remodeled and now a modernized downtown office structure. The moving began Thursday afternoon and was expected to end Friday afternoon. Two committee meetings were to be held Friday afternoon in the new quarters.

The whole second floor of the chamber of commerce building will be occupied by that organization. On that floor are some eight offices, including a committee room. In another part of the building the chamber has reserved an assembly room where some 600 people can be seated.

The military committee, called to meet at 5 o'clock, attained the honor of being first to meet in the new quarters. Colonel E. E. Polkney is its chairman. The other members are: Wilmer L. Moore, Colonel; Robert J. Paxton, Lt. J. Daniel, J. Epps Brown, John Morris, Sr., and W. O. Ponce.

The Atlanta freight bureau will move into the chamber of commerce building Monday. It will occupy the entire third floor. The Atlanta convention bureau also will move Monday into suite of offices on the fourth floor. Other committees will take up their quarters from then on until it is full.

In January, 1907, the chamber of commerce moved into the office from which it was moving Friday. On the fifth floor of the Empire building, its move was from the corner of Pryor and Hunter streets, from the building which was used as city hall during several years following.

ODD FELLOWS' CABINET MEETS AT PIEDMONT

Grand Master Thomas M. Haynes Presides at Semi-Annual Session

With Thomas M. Haynes, grand master of Georgia, presiding, the semi-annual meeting of the cabinet of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows began in the colonial room of the Piedmont hotel Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Present were grand lodge officers and deputy officers of the entire state, representing every lodge in Georgia, 550 in number, with a grand total of 35,000 members.

The session was executive and no outsiders were admitted during the deliberations. At 1 o'clock the meeting adjourned for lunch and an hour later the delegates reconvened. The session will continue during the afternoon and close Friday night with an informal supper.

Grand Master Haynes was delighted with the full attendance and the interest taken in the work. Reports show the organization has made rapid strides in Georgia the past few years, the membership steadily increasing. Incidentally new lodges are being installed from time to time, as the occasion demands.

While a majority of the visitors will leave for their homes either Friday evening or Saturday morning, several have signified their intention of remaining in the city over Sunday.

ATLANTIAN ARE HONORED BY THE PHI BETA KAPPA

Chapter of Famous Society Installed at University of Georgia

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) ATHENS, Ga., March 27.—The chapter of Alpha chapter of Georgia, of the Phi Beta Kappa society, was installed at the University of Georgia Friday evening by Dr. Hamilton Wright MacBride, representing the senate of the national organization. Impressive ceremonies marked the occasion, the university chapter being crowded with students and distinguished visitors, including several members of the board of trustees and past graduate initiates of the society and the whole faculty of the institution attending in full ceremonial attire. All the heads of the various departments in the college of arts and science were named. Faculty foundation members, and the honor graduates of the classes since 1861 were made honorary members, including several prominent Atlantians, among whom were Robert L. Foreman, Victor I. Smith, Arthur Heyman, Preston A. Wright, and others.

The following students of the senior class achieve the honor of being charter members: R. N. Schwab, of Atlanta; D. K. McCamp, of Dalton; Hoyt H. Welch, E. A. Bailey, Frederick Jordan and Joseph W. Myers. Merely the announcements were made in the morning and formal initiation to take place at night.

FIRE MARSHAL READS NEWS OF SISTER'S DEATH

Captain W. R. Joyner, state fire marshal, received a telegram Thursday evening announcing the death, in Houston, Tex., of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Mitchell. Mrs. Mitchell is well known in Atlanta and Marietta, although she went to Texas to live about twenty-seven years ago. She had been an invalid for several years.

RUMOR SOUTHERN SHOPS TO BE AT INMAN YARDS

Officials Make Denial - Plan Discussed to Move Coach Yards to North Avenue

It was reported Friday that the Southern railways would abandon what is known as its "south" shop on Windsor street, and erect great shops at Inman Yards.

The report was given greater credence by the fact that the railroad recently has provided a great fund for extensive improvements in the south.

At the office of the road, however, a denial was made of the rumored project. It was explained that the report possibly grew out of a tentative plan, now under consideration, to move the "coach" yards from the south shops to the yards at North Avenue.

This would be done to give more room at the south shops for general work. This move, however, would be of no great consequence, and even that has not been officially decided on.

The road already has small shops at Inman Yards, but it is denied that bigger improvements were contemplated there or that, as reported, the road was buying additional property around the Inman Yards.

The rumor also had it that the road's decision was brought about by the terms of a lease about to expire, but officials said that the property where its shops stood was not leased but owned by the road in fee simple.

Brother of J. F. Johnson

A telegram announcing that his brother, Richard Johnson, a prominent farmer of Leesburg, Ga., had been stricken with paralysis and was in a critical condition was received Thursday evening by Joseph P. Johnson, chief clerk of the federal penitentiary department. Mr. Johnson and his son, Thomas J. Johnson, left Atlanta Friday morning for Leesburg.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR TWO WEEKS' WORK

Unequaled Opportunity Offered by The Journal to Emergent Men and Women

Explaining the great increase in interest which is daily growing by leaps and bounds one of the earnest young women in The Atlanta Journal's Big Easter Gift Distribution, told the following story this morning:

"I have noticed that the big business men of today, in relating the stories of their rise, always say, 'Watch your opportunities.' Now, I know what the average wage is, and even in my present position, I am not getting anywhere near the salary I know I can earn by trying during these two weeks of the campaign. Why, even if I should only win the first district prize in my particular section, I will be earning a salary much larger than I have ever earned before for the same length of time, or even greater than I ever hope to earn in the future so why shouldn't I work? I know this is one of the opportunities of my life, and I am going to make the most of it. I have noticed that the big business men of today, in relating the stories of their rise, always say, 'Watch your opportunities.' Now, I know what the average wage is, and even in my present position, I am not getting anywhere near the salary I know I can earn by trying during these two weeks of the campaign. Why, even if I should only win the first district prize in my particular section, I will be earning a salary much larger than I have ever earned before for the same length of time, or even greater than I ever hope to earn in the future so why shouldn't I work? I know this is one of the opportunities of my life, and I am going to make the most of it."

This same explanation is given by the majority of the candidates and shows there are many who realize the extent of the opportunity before them at the present time. One Hundred Dollars is certainly good pay for two weeks' work, and any earnest candidate can win it by trying. Of course, it will take some work, but just stop a moment and consider whether or not it takes effort to gain anything worth while in this world. The things we prize the most in life are the things we earn by the hardest work, but it does not take a great deal of work to win one of these prizes. AND THERE IS ONE OF THESE SHINY GOLD AWARDS IN EACH DISTRICT.

And if a candidate gets right in and tries there is no limit to the accomplishment. After you start, you soon realize it is not such a hard matter to win even the top prize of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD. This then, is the REAL OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERY CANDIDATE. Now is the time to make your efforts count and get your plans in effect for the final week, which will soon be upon us.

CASH THROUS PRIZES
There are no doubt many people who have imagined you participating in the close of the campaign. BUT RIGHT NOW IS WHEN YOU WANT THOSE SUBSCRIPTIONS AND WANT THEM WORSE THAN YOU EVER WANTED. ANYTHING BEFORE IN YOUR LIFE, FOR RIGHT NOW IS WHEN THEY CAN'T FORGIVE YOU MOST. Then, if you count upon rounding up all these prospective subscribers during the last week, you are certain to forget some of them. WHY NOT DO THE RIGHT THING BY TRYING TO GET THESE PEOPLE TOMORROW. TELLING THEM YOU NEED THEIR SUBSCRIPTIONS NOW AND WILL APPRECIATE THIS HELPER NOW. NOW YOU WILL LAY IN. Every possible subscription is going to be needed, and it might be just that one that you expected to get but forgot to get until too late that it is gone from you. YOU WOULD SURELY REGRET SUCH AN OVERSIGHT IF THE FINAL COUNT SHOWED THAT ONE SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION HAD SAVED YOU FROM WINNING ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD OR A HANDSOME AUTOMOBILE. WOULDN'T YOU?

Well, this is just as likely to happen as not, unless you do your best now. The best plan, and in fact, the only effective plan for today, is to SECURE EVERY POSSIBLE SUBSCRIPTION. NOT TOMORROW OR NEXT WEEK, but TODAY. There will be plenty of time next week to get them, but get the ones you know of RIGHT NOW. Systematic canvassing is going to prove a strong feature of the campaign, and this is being done right now. Victory lies with those who do these things. Many a candidate thinks he or she has done everything possible, but he or her particular locality, but is going to wake up and find out that some more energetic candidate has gone into

Oldest Member of Estes Family Dies at Clarkston

MRS. MARY ESTES.

Mrs. Mary Estes, Better Known as "Grandma Estes," Passes Away in Home at Clarkston Within One Mile of Where She Was Born Eighty-Seven Years Ago

In the death of Mrs. Mary Estes last Tuesday at the home of her son in Clarkston, Ga., the family of that name mourns the passing of its oldest and most beloved member.

"Grandma Estes," as she was universally known, is survived by eleven children, fifty-four grandchildren, forty great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild, all of whom save one live either in Fulton or DeKalb county.

She was eighty-seven years of age and died within a mile of the place where she was born. She was a devout Christian and a prominent member of Rehoboth Baptist church, which her husband helped to found in 1854.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Rehoboth church, conducted by Rev. J. B. Shilcock. From miles around came relatives and friends to pay one last tribute to the old lady who was so well known and so beloved.

As the oldest member of her family Mrs. Estes was a prominent figure at the Estes reunion last year in Grant park, which was attended by over 500 people. She will be sadly missed at the next reunion to be held here in August.

What should be his or her own field, and secured subscriptions that will bring them success. Systematic canvassing of Atlanta or any town represented in the campaign will show many subscriptions unsecured that would have meant, or will mean, victory for those who get them. YOU HAVE ONLY A LITTLE OVER TWO WEEKS TO WORK. IF YOU WANT TO WIN YOU MUST WORK NOW.

Under the direction of Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, a special committee of well known young women of Atlanta is being organized to make an active campaign to increase the membership of the Atlanta Musical association and to stimulate interest in the musical affairs of Atlanta. Among those who will serve on this committee are:

Mrs. W. C. Jarnagin, Mrs. Linton Houston, Mrs. Fred Hodgson, Mrs. W. J. Morrison, Mrs. Benjamin Elias, Miss Edwina Polke, Miss Louise Dooly, Miss Nellie Jones, Mrs. P. J. McGovern, Mrs. Jack Samuels.

The following gentlemen will also assist in the work:

Mr. Mortimer Wilson, Mr. Alex von Steubach, Mr. Charles Chalmers, Mr. David Love, Mr. William J. Lowenthal, Mr. W. M. Van Hatten, Mr. E. E. Rogers, Mr. Ben Lee Crew.

St. Paul will have the affirmative and St. John the negative. A tree will be planted by the door.

Negro Gets Pardon
Miss Pierce, an eighteen-year-old negro, serving a sentence for the murder in Greene county, of Will Jernigan, an armed negro, was Wednesday afternoon pardoned by Governor Slaton.

COUNTRY RESIDENCE IS BURNED BY SUFFRAGETTES

Sir Hugh McCalmont's House Destroyed Near Belfast,
With $75,000 Loss

BELFAST, March 27.—A suffragette arson squad early today burned down Abberlades, the country residence of Major General Sir Hugh McCalmont, near White Abbey, on Belfast Lough. The house, although fully furnished, was not occupied except by caretakers. The loss is $75,000.

The suffragettes recently threatened to start war against the Ulster Unionist leaders because of the refusal of Sir Edward Carson to support the suffrage movement.

Men and Religion Bulletin No. 107

Atlanta Clean

"A city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God"

---Hebrews 11:10

"Is Christ divided?"

"As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

"If the foot shall say, 'because I am not the hand, I am not of the body,' is it therefore not of the body?"

"Now you are the body of Christ."

Would you divide your Lord?

Can you make one part of Him approve law breaking and perjury, another sustain the greed which would feed upon the lives of women and children, another countenance the damnation of men and the torturing of their wives and mothers by the sale of liquor?

Business, the building of a city?

Even before the cross of Christ was reared to teach us love, Habakkuk warned—

"Woe to him that getteth an evil gain for his house—woe to him that buildeth a town with blood and establisheth a city by iniquity; woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink; TO THEE that addest thy venom and makest him drunk.

"Thou art filled with shame and not glory."

And Isaiah, with lips cleansed by the flaming coal from the altar of God, cried—

"Wash you; make you clean; put away the evil from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek justice, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

"COME NOW AND LET US REASON TOGETHER, SAITH THE LORD; THOUGH YOUR SINS BE AS SCARLET, THEY SHALL BE WHITE AS SNOW; THOUGH THEY BE RED LIKE CRIMSON, THEY SHALL BE AS WOOL—

"How is the faithful city become a harlot! She that was full of justice! Righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers—

"Every one loveth bribes and followeth after rewards; they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them—

"Zion shall be redeemed with justice."

Then came Micah, answering and asking—

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

"You are the body of Christ."

"Walk humbly with thy God."

"Wash you; make you clean; put away the evil from before mine eyes."

And His Church, your Church, calls—Make the whole city clean! BRICK AND MORTAR, STONE AND CONCRETE, PAVEMENT AND WALL SHOULD BE MADE SPOTLESS IN THE LIGHT OF HIS DAY, BUT OUR HEARTS AND LIVES, THE REAL CITY IN WHICH WE LIVE, SHOULD BE FREED FROM EVERY STAIN IN THE LIGHT OF HIS LOVE.

Protected vice has gone from our midst.

Cruelty to convicts has been condemned, and men already see its end.

The thousands who visit our beloved home, Atlanta, should bear away the word—Neither cranks, nor libertines, but Justice, God's Law of Love, rules within our gate.

Yea, they should say to the world—

"We have found 'a city which hath foundations; whose builder and maker is God.'"

Brothels, gin mills and bars—

Blind tigers, whether in the form of locker clubs, or near-beer sa- loons—these have no abiding place in such a city. They cannot stay. These spots must go. Atlanta will be clean.

Think of these things.

And Sunday, will you not lay aside prejudice, passion and greed, and go to your church, God's house of prayer, and there hear His word, not in order that men may dictate to you, but that you may hear and heed that Law of Love which your Father would write within your heart.

Christ is not divided.

Shredded Meat

the food that builds muscle and bone and brain—a natural, elemental food—containing no yeast, no baking powder or chemicals of any kind—just the pure whole wheat grain, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. Better than porridges for children because the crispness of the shreds compels mastication which not only develops sound teeth, but is the first process in digestion.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. Try toasted Triscuit, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon with butter, cheese or marmalade.

PLANNING TO OVERHAUL PURCHASING DEPARTMENT

Council Members Not Satisfied With Present System of Making City's Purchases

Dissatisfied with the manner in which purchases for the city are now made by the purchasing department, members of the general council started a movement Friday to overhaul the department by amending the ordinance under which it is created.

This ordinance provides that all supplies for the city shall be purchased by a purchasing agent, which officer is created by the ordinance, and provides that the purchasing agent may call in the mayor, the chairman of the finance committee of council and the controller as an advisory committee.

Mayor Woodward has insisted upon strict conformity to these provisions, and the purchasing agent, who is W. C. Chambers, an appointee of the mayor, has governed himself to a large extent according to the mayor's wishes.

The result is that the purchasing department boards of the city have had no hand in the purchase of any supplies, materials or equipment for their respective departments, and the result is that the rub comes and where the dissatisfied council members propose to make a change.

They propose to draft an entirely new ordinance, providing that the purchasing agent shall call in as an advisory committee the board controls the department for which the purchases are made. Thus in making purchases for the fire department, the purchasing agent would call in the chief of the fire department and the board of firemasters. In making purchases for the police department he would call in the chief of the police department and the board of police commissioners. And so on, through all departments of the city.

The council members point out that if the purchasing department continues to operate on the present plan, the purchase of a pump for the waterworks department, for instance, would be made without calling in the general manager of waterworks or the board of water commissioners; that the plans and specifications for a new school building would be made and a contract awarded without calling in the superintendent of schools or the board of education, etc.

They propose to so define the purchasing agent's authority and so prescribe the manner in which he shall make purchases, that all bids for supplies, material, apparatus, equipment, buildings, etc., shall go to the purchasing agent and be opened by him, but also that the various departments shall be given a say-so in the final selection and award.

Mayor Woodward is flatly opposed to this proposition, and so stated Friday, in fact, he made it plain that if council alters the status of the purchasing department he will exercise his veto prerogative.

Councilman Jesse B. Lee, who was very much offended Thursday by being excluded from an executive session of the mayor, the finance committee chairman, the controller and the purchasing agent, on the purchase of an automobile fire engine, said Friday that as chairman of the fire committee of council he would refuse to sign a voucher for payment for the engine unless the engine and the contract meet with his approval. The councilman called on the mayor, and stated after he came out that they had quite a stormy interview.

Police Holding L. C. Haynes, Who Told of Negroes' Actions Toward White Girl

Working on the theory that the story of two negroes' attempted assault on a white girl near Brookwood the other day for a fake, the local police are holding L. C. Haynes, who first called up the police and told them the story, at the station house for investigation.

Haynes, who is about thirty-six years old and lives at 130 Echo street, was taken into custody late Thursday night at the home of his brother-in-law, William Putnam, at 113 Chestnut street.

Officers declare that his story of the attempted assault will be thoroughly sifted. They say that Haynes and a man named Wilson took the girl to Brookwood themselves. Wilson is now being sought.

Haynes is indignant at the attitude of the police. He says that he and Wilson were working near Brookwood when they heard the girl cry out. She was some distance down the tracks of the Southern railroad at the time, says Haynes. He describes graphically how he and Wilson put to flight two negroes who had attacked her.

When Haynes called up the city and county police and told them of the alleged attack, the neighborhood around Brookwood was up in arms. The woods were combed for the alleged assailants, and one suspect, a negro named Will Johnson, arrested. Johnson is still held at police station.

Haynes says that the white girl who was assaulted came to town on the street car immediately after the attack. She has never been located by the police. Haynes also says that Johnson is one of the negroes who he claims attacked her.

Too Many Children
are pale and frail—backward in studies—with pinched faces and poor blood—their minds and bodies are actually starved because their regular food does not nourish.

Such children need Scott's Emulsion above everything else; it contains nature's rarest life-giving fats; it is essentially food value—blood-food and bone-food, free from wine, alcohol or harmful drugs.

Fresh, Dainty Muslin Underwear at Little Prices

Extra Values Made Possible by the March Sale

The March Sale of Muslin Underwear has so effected values that the benefits still accrue to our patrons.

It has put us on our mettle to maintain its standard of values.

A difficult task but it has been done, so the woman making ready for Easter and the spring will find that her money will buy prettier laces and embroideries and finer nainsooks here.

We cite as instances—

Corset Covers at 25c
Sheer and soft fabrics, arms and yokes trimmed neatly with laces and embroideries and ribbons. All seams felled; fly fronts.

Drawers at 25c
Of sturdy and free-from-starch muslin; hemstitched tucks and embroidery edges.

Corset Covers at 39c
Compare them with those you usually find at 50c. These will not suffer. The nainsooks are as fine, the trimmings as pretty and as lasting—laces and embroideries and ribbons. And besides these are the corset covers at 50c. Marvels! Sheer nainsooks, edged with German Val laces and set with rich embroidery medallions. 50c has not done such service before.

Gowns at 50c
Choose from many styles. High and V necks,

Gowns at 79c
Unusual values even for the high standard of this muslin underwear section. Crepes in colors and white, nainsook as sheer as you please, and muslins; choose from a dozen or more styles—high, V and low necks; trimmings of dainty embroideries of linen laces, of laces and embroideries and tucks worked together.

$1.25 Gowns 98c
A special of specials. Two dozen or more styles; high necks, tucked yokes; lacy, airy low necks and short sleeves; V necks. We have never seen such fine laces, such exquisite embroideries, such soft nainsooks, in gowns at $1.25. Nor does this tell of the beautiful combinations of the laces and ribbons.

Young Master Atlanta May Be Quite English In His New Suit This Spring If It Is Chosen In The Junior Department Third Floor

Boys' Suits show the English influence this spring. We speak of the lately arrived Pickwick Suits and David Copperfield Suits.

The Pickwick is a two-in-one affair. A blouse of white with long trousers of another color buttoned on. Very smart.

The David Copperfield has a loose blouse, much like a middy, of one color and short trousers of another.

These may be had in linen and galatea.

With them are many little Russian belted suits, all white, white with colored belts and collars—these in linen and galatea; then a great variety of gingham and percale suits. Prices go from $1.00 up to $7.50.

All of which is but one way of noting the completeness of things in the Junior Department. The wants of the young folk have been carefully looked after.

Mothers will find it a pleasure to shop here.

To the Children, too, the Easter Hat Is Very Important

Just as important as ever it was to a grown-up. And the Junior Department has planned and worked and arranged with that thought foremost.

The Easter hats for the young folk are ready.

And young folk covers that span of years that extends from a lacy and Frenchy white cap, with puffs of ribbons and hand embroidery on it, to the Milan shape, crowned with a garland of fruit or a cluster of rich, red roses—or to a "lingerie" hat for party wear, of soft crown of lace wrapped with wide ribbons of blue and pink, with streamers extending from the underbrim.

The children's millinery is at its best.

More of Those School Dresses at 98c

Sizes 2 to 14 years.

Judge the Junior Department by these dresses! They are matchless values.

The quality of the gingham and the percales is that usually found in dresses at $1.50. And the styles—out of the ordinary, novel; little peplums are frequent and low placed belts and quaint little turn-back collars and bands of contrasting colors and of embroidery.

And in passing note the stitching, the buttons, the details that tell of many trips to the laundry.

Many smart wash dresses of gingham, percale, ratine, lawn and linen are priced at $1.50 to $10.00, and show style marks that the girls of Paris first enjoyed.

The Easter Dresses for the Children

Sizes 6 to 14 years, and intermediate sizes.

What a charming and attractive affair the Easter dress may be this year.

In the first place, it may be one of many fabrics.

For the demure young woman a voile or a lingerie, all white, or white with, say, a cluster of pink French flowers in the bodice, or a sash of pink or blue; the waist may be a mass of chiffon, net and laces. It will be fashioned with just as many ruffles and frills as you please.

For the young woman who turns to characteristically smart things, here are the ratines and the tafetas in soft blues, in navy, in the new tango shade—in about any color she may want. The skirt will give unmistakable marks of newness in ruffles and tiers that are at once youthful and graceful.

The Easter Dress—but see with your own eyes what it may be.

Priced from $3.00 to $20.00.

YOUR MONEY

Reaping the Whirlwind of Railroad Financing.
By JOHN M. OSKISON.

I desire to draw your attention to a perfect illustration of the old adage that if you sow the wind you may expect to reap the whirlwind. It is a matter of railroad financing.

Very desperately, the railroad managers are trying to obtain an increase of rates from the interstate commerce commission. Probably they are fully entitled to the increase; certainly they are going to have a hard time getting money to meet their needs.

In the very midst of the railroad fight for higher rates comes the news that the poor old Rock Island system has at last hit the rocks, and a congress committee investigation of its financial history looms ahead. The whirlwind is about to be reaped.

It was back in 1932 that the sowing of the wild seed plot in the financial history of Rock Island began. An ex-congressman put the case in a speech in the house, a group of freshly-made millionaires fell upon the Rock Island

In 1902 and proceeded to change it from a fine money-earning property capitalized at $60,000,000 into a water-logged, starving. Before it they ceased irrigating the property $121,000,000 of "water" poured over it of fixed charges rose from 10 per cent to 39 per cent, and the inevitable "protective committees" (one organized in the interests of the bondholders, and another on behalf of the stockholders) are advertising their plans as I write.

The Rock Island sowing of the financial wind was a peculiarly bold operation—you will probably learn from the

Said George Gould recently:

"We cannot sell securities on a large scale abroad until investors over there feel certain of the future of our railroads."

That is a true statement; and he might have added that American investors are also getting shy. Over here too, we should really like to see more

NEW RABBI WILL GIVE INTERESTING LECTURE

Dr. H. Yood to Talk on "Judaism Within and Without" at Synagogue

Dr. H. Yood, the newly elected rabbi of the congregation of Ahavath Achim, will deliver a lecture on "Judaism within and without" Saturday morning at the Gilmer Street synagogue. Sunday morning he will address the children of the Ahavath Zion Sunday school and will speak again at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Yood, who is a graduate of the Rabbinical seminary at Volozhin, Russia, and of the University of Birmingham, England, is a man of scholarly thought, and his address will be of much interest.

SEEK MORE MEMBERS

The membership committee of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, composed of fifty-two men, will banquet at the railroad association rooms, 31 and 32 West Alabama street, Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Plans will be laid for the annual membership campaign soon to be inaugurated. W. W. Walls, superintendent of terminals for the Southern railway, is chairman of the committee and is enthusiastically interested in the up-building of the railroad association. The membership of 500 will be greatly augmented through this campaign.

Californian Sought Here

Mrs. Isabelle Hawkins, of Oakland, Cal., has written to the Atlanta police asking them to search for her seven-year-old son, George T. Hawkins, who she says left his home last December for this city. She is doubly anxious to find him, she writes, because there is sickness in his family.

Been Resident of Atlanta
37 Years

Charles M. Sentell, one of Atlanta's pioneer citizens, died early Friday morning at a private sanitarium. He was sixty-nine years old and had been a resident of Atlanta thirty-seven years.

He was a veteran of the war between the states, having been a member of the Twenty-seventh battalion of Georgia Volunteers for the four years of the war. He had been a member of the Baptist church fifty-four years and a Mason fifty years. He is survived by his widow, one son, W. E. Sentell, one daughter, Mrs. J. T. Chestnut, and a nephew, Rev.

W. M. Sentell, pastor of Gordon Street Baptist church.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, 21 Summit avenue.

AMERICAN AUTOMOBILES
GAINING FAVOR ABROAD

Foreign Cars Are Losing Popularity in This Country,
According to Reports

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 27.—American-made automobiles are gaining in favor abroad while foreign-made cars are losing their popularity in this country, according to a department of commerce statement today on the exports and imports of automobiles in January. The number of cars exported in January was considerably greater than in January, 1913. There were 2,628 American-made automobiles exported in January, this year, as compared to 2,187 for January, a year ago. The number of cars imported fell in the same period from 71 to 12.

Disease Due to Germs

All disease, not only infectious disease, but all other diseases—colds, throat troubles, intestinal troubles—are all due to implanted germs. These germs, once in the body, multiply by millions. Nature provides for their extermination, but sometimes is unequal to the task.

When Nature begins to lose you soon feel the toxins or poisons—your head aches—your tongue is coated—you are dizzy, woozy, stupid, half sick—then sure enough you are sick.

This bile is clogged and must be released before you get relief. Bile is the disinfectant that stops the multiplication of germs. Release the bile and the trouble is relieved.

TITLE TO PROPERTY IS CONTESTED IN COURTS

Ownership of Hundred Acres Near Ponce de Leon Park
Is in Dispute

A conversation remembered forty-six years ago may decide who owns 100,000 acres of land, 100 acres near Ponce de Leon park, around which a hotly contested suit is being fought in Judge W. D. Ellis' branch superior court.

John W. Engle, one of the witnesses for the plaintiff, testified Friday that he had heard a conversation forty-six years ago between his uncle and William Armstrong, which the latter admitted he had sold the land.

"I sold the land for a song," said Armstrong, according to the witness, when his uncle asked why such a sacrifice had been made, as the land was worth much more. "I sold it for a song, and I sang the song myself."

This conversation, which the witness, then a little boy playing on a well on the Armstrong estate, overheard and remembered, may mean that the defendant, Robert L. Rodgers and others, have no chance to recover the $1,000,000 worth of property.

The plaintiff, Mrs. L. F. Bellinger and others, who are in possession of the property, are seeking to enjoin the defendant, Robert L. Rodgers and others, from interfering with their possession.

The hundred acres are bounded on the north by North avenue, on the east by Barrett street and the Payne property, on the south by Angier avenue and Rodgers' estate, and on the west by Rodgers' estate.

The disputed property, however, does not include the land known as the Lawrence property and property in these boundaries owned by John Stephens, Hooper Alexander and others.

CLAIM DEED WAS LOST.

The plaintiff, present owners of the land, trace their title to 1852, when they claim James Blackman had possession. They claim Blackman bought the land from William Armstrong, but lost the deed. The plaintiffs assert that they and their predecessors in title have continued possession of the land for over twenty years.

The Armstrong heirs, who, with Robert L. Rodgers and others, are the defendants, assert that no deed was ever made from James Blackman. They say they have a direct title derived from William Armstrong, who owned the land in 1852. They claim he never sold the property, and that his predecessors in title have been in 1870 still the owners. They ask the court to award the property to the Armstrong heirs and to enjoin Robert L. Rodgers to whom it is asserted, they have sold part of their interests.

The plaintiffs are represented by J. P. Goughly, A. A. & E. L. Meyer, L. E. Rosser, E. M. & G. F. Mitchell. The defendants' attorneys are Judge R. L. Rodgers, one of the defendants, and William F. Buchanan.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY ALLIANCE SERVICES

Beginning Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Christian Missionary alliance will hold special services at 79 Capitol avenue. The meetings will continue until Wednesday. There will be three services on Sunday, one at 11 o'clock in the morning, another at 3:30 in the afternoon, and on Wednesday at 11 o'clock in the evening. On Monday and Tuesday services will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and on Wednesday an all-day session will be held, commencing at 10:30 o'clock.

The speakers will be Rev. A. E. Funk, of New York; Rev. R. A. Forrest, of Tacoma, Ga., and others. Mr. Funk will speak twice Sunday morning and afternoon. Mr. Forrest will speak on Sunday night. On Monday and Tuesday Mr. Funk will give Bible readings, and there may be preaching every night.

W. J. SHARPTON'S BOND IS PLACED AT $500

Bond of W. J. Sharpton, taken into custody recently in the belief that he could tell who robbed W. Hardie, on Forsyth street, March 12, has been fixed at $500 and he was expected to make it some time Friday.

Hardie has told officers Sharpton positively is not one of the two men who held him up and took his watch, vest and money.

Officers thought Sharpton knew the robbers, but Sharpton says he never saw the man who left the overcoat at his house before.

CLEAN-UP SPIRIT TAKING FIRM HOLD ON ATLANTA

Nearly Everybody Interested in Campaign for Spotless Town

The "clean up and paint up spirit" is infectious. Everybody is entering enthusiastically into the campaign to make Atlanta Spotless Town for opera and shriner visitors.

Following the announcement from civic institutions, women's clubs and individuals, some of the hotels of the city have announced their intention of joining in the movement.

The Georgian Terrace, which is already regarded as one of the cleanest and prettiest hotels in the whole country, has announced that it expects to shine with unusual brightness during the next few weeks.

"I am painting, cleaning and polishing the Terrace from cellar to garret," says A. R. Keen, the manager, "and I am making the place as comfortable and convenient as possible. Everything will be in perfect condition, better than ever before, for the opera and for shriner week."

MAYOR AND DELEGATION TO MEET ROAD SCOUTS

Good Roads Body En Route
From Washington to Be Entertained Here

A delegation of local automobile and good roads enthusiasts, headed by Mayor James G. Woodward, Fred Houston, W. H. Leahy, F. J. Paxson and Ivan E. Allen, will leave the city Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock and motor to Decatur, where they will be joined by a committee of DeKalb county citizens and then motor to Stone Mountain to greet the party of good roads scouts en route from Washington to Atlanta.

When the first party reaches Decatur on the return they will be met by twenty-five more automobile loads. The procession will then proceed to Atlanta, and after a short spin about the city center will be tendered the visitors an informal reception and buffet luncheon will be tendered the visitors.

The arrangements for the entertainment of the scouts is in the hands of the local executive committee of the American Road Congress. Ivan E. Allen is master of ceremonies. The address of welcome is to be delivered by Mayor Woodward and other speeches will be made by Mel H. Wilkinson, F. J. Paxson, George W. Hanson and V. T. Winn, chairman of the committee.

The scouting party is composed of prominent officials and representatives of the American Highway association, who are touring the national capital here in the interest of road improvement and the maintenance of public highways. Lectures on these subjects are a part of the daily routine.

Paris Is Pictured in These Beautiful Trimmed Hats

THOUGH the hats are not from Paris, the ideas are. And the shapes, the trimmings, the styles, are such as you will see in the world's Fashion-City.

The Watteau shapes; the Shepherdess models; the quaint Poke Hats; the hat with high bandeau—all the most becoming styles of a decade are here in a lavish showing. Charming developed in ribbons, flowers and garlands. Black and soft, spring like shades. Specially featured for Saturday at $7.50 and $10.

$5 Milan Hemp Shapes $3.95
—These hats are made of a fine, light, mill hat that need but a touch of trimming to be ready for the street. Plain and milan hemp.

Girls' Hats $2.95

—Fancy braids developed in droop trim, poke and bonnet effects. Trimmed with plain or shirred ribbon and flowers. Values $2.95 to $5 at $2.95.

Through Copying and Adapting Paris Styles We Have Brought Down the Price of these Charming Waists & Blouses

to $1.50--$2.00--$2.50

Doubtless the original designer of these blouses is a dreamer—producing one style and without a thought to the cost. Then the manufacturer steps in and copies or adapts the style to reproduce in quantities. Commercializing art, if you will, but who can wonder that such clever blouses, shirts and waists can be had for $1.50, $2 and $2.50. Crepes, voiles, dimities and lingers are the materials—some have gusset yoke; some have raglan shoulder; some show the Inevitable collars; some are deliciously frilly and fluffy. But all incorporate in some form or other the very latest thought of fashion.

Use Cottolene
on the testimony of the past

The first pure food display of Cottolene which attracted more than National attention was at the World's Fair, in Chicago in 1893.

That meant that Cottolene had then been known well enough and long enough to have its place in the homes of America.

Since then it is fair to say that Cottolene has revolutionized and bettered cooking in hundreds of thousands of homes.

Cottolene

is imitated—of course—but is unequalled. Any woman who knows it and uses it will tell you that it more than takes the place of butter or lard for shortening and frying.

Remember that you use one-third less Cottolene than you do of butter or lard.

Write us today for our FREE Cook Book, filled with splendid recipes by the most famous experts. Tell your dealer to send you a pail of Cottolene, follow the simple instructions and the results will be so gratifying that you will never go back to old fashioned, wasteful cooking fats.

Marshall-Knapp

Wedding Plans

From Washington, D. C., comes the interesting plans for the marriage of Miss Maitland Marshall, daughter of General and Mrs. William L. Marshall, and Paymaster John H. Knapp, U. S. A., which will take place on April 22;
if the Mayflower, to which Mr. Knapp is attached, returns from Mexican waters by that time.
Miss Eleanor Willson will be among Miss Marshall's bridesmaids, while among the other attendants will be Miss Frank Phipps, Captain Phipps, of the coast artillery, who will be matron of honor; Miss Dorothy Ark-wright, of Atlanta, Ga., cousin of the bride, who will be maid of honor; Miss Mary Hane, of Staten Island; Miss Hazel Funk, of Bloomington, Ill.; Miss Hazel Niles, Miss Julia Hay and Miss Kate Duffess. Mr. Knapp has not yet selected his ushers.

Philharmonic Concert Event Of Tuesday Evening

Much interest is being manifested in the concert to be given by the Philharmonic orchestra Tuesday evening, March 31, at the Atlanta theater.
A very beautiful program has been arranged for the evening, a feature of which will be the overture by Mason, an American composer whose works are attracting much favorable comment in musical circles.
The numbers have been selected to appeal to all lovers of music and will embrace a very wide range of selection. A large audience will be present and the evening promises to be a pleasant one to the members of the Atlanta Musical association and their friends.

Miss Bates to Entertain at Luncheon

Miss Annie Winslow Bates will entertain at luncheon Saturday at her home on West Peachtree street. The occasion will be informal. The guests to include a small number of Miss Bates' school friends.

Afternoon Tea to Visitors

Mrs. W. A. Neal entertained informally at tea Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs' house guests,
Mrs. H. F. Lane, Mrs. W. F. Lane, and Mrs. Edward McEllean, who are en route to their home in Boston.

The house was artistically decorated with a variety of sprig blossoms, and in the dining room the daintily appointed tea table had a centerpiece of Joujou arranged in a crystal vase.

Mrs. Neal was assisted in entertaining by her daughters, Mrs. T. H. La-ham, Mrs. Frank Gunn, of Macon, and Mrs. A. C. Ivey.

Besides the attractive visiting matrons, the guests of the pleasant socasion were Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs, Mrs. Samuel T. Weyman and her mother, Mrs. Fontaine, of Columbus; Mrs.
Hugh Lokey, Mrs. Edward H. Barnett,
Mrs. Stephen Barrett, Mrs. Henry
Johnson, Mrs. W. S. Duncan, Mrs. Roff
Rings, Mrs. George King, Mrs. F. H.
Mell and Mrs. William Worth Martin.

Reception to Visitor

An event of Friday afternoon was the reception given by Miss Willie Smith at her home in David Hills, in compliment to Miss Grace Ham, of Jackson, a bride-elect, who is the guest of Mrs.
Paul Baker.

A group of stately palms formed an effective background for the receiving line and the mantels of the parlor and dining room were banded with Enchantment, carnations and pink sweet peas.
The punch bowl was placed in the sun parlor and was imbedded in sweet leaves and ferns.

The centerpiece of the dining room was a crystal basket filled with fragrant flowers.

Four silver candelabras which rested on the corners of the table, held pink-shaded candles.

An orchestra played tuneful selections during the hours the guests called.

Miss Gladys Bird and Miss Gladys
Grant served punch.

Miss Smith wore blue silk crepe draped in cream lace, with corsage of pink roses.

Miss Ham was attractive in elix blue

INTERESTING GOSSIP OF INTERESTING PEOPLE

From London comes the following interesting description of the weird costumes seen at the Chateau Art Revue of There were no fewer than 4,000 dancers at the revel of the Chateau Arts club the Albert hall. The setting was an old English hall, there were many gargantuan and weird frocks and costumes, and several of the ladies looked very strange with purple and green hair.
Many of the tropical groups were greatly amusing including a "company of nise," made up to look like the departed tribes of South Africa, in a dummy ship representing the Ungeni.
One lady wore a gorgeous gold gown,
the skirt of cloth of gold being draped in three lamp shades, a crimson shawl around the skirt from waist to ankle, and a high night cap turban and crimson hair. A striking futuristic gown had a tight orange skirt and butterfly orange sleeves, large white panthers, decorated with red and blue roses over it, a blue turban, and blue shoes and stockings.

"The flame of life" was represented by a man and gray, with a slight touch of cloud. The scarlet hair was dressed high up on end to indicate the living flame, mounting upwards. A "scorpion dress" was in dead black, with a gold scorpion in relief. An "eagle gown" was study in mythology had the hooded claws of the bird denoting the skirt and part of the plumage.

Trouser gowns, because they are loose and comfortable were plentiful. One trouser frock of bright red having purple straps crossing the arms instead of sleeves. Purple shoes, stockings, and gloves were worn to match, and a large purple headress with green ornaments.
The eaters followed recipes of the time of Richard II and Elizabeth, and there was an interesting procession of yeomen and cooks bearing the board dishes, barons of beef and other dishes.

In Budapest consternation has been caused in feminine circles by a new order issued by the general command of the army corps of which this city is the headquarters. A short notice of this order instructed his officers from giving their arms to their wives in the streets, and now he has forbidden them to escort the fair sex to balls or other functions if the latter are wearing the skirt which is so much the fashion in the Hungarian capital.
The wives of officers are now faced with the alternative of being out of the fashion or of compromising the promotion of their husbands.

In Paris take orders for fashionable dress take on a new lease of popularity with the advent of spring, many of the new models for the first time developing the tropical hue. The consumer in Giverny, "Giverny," of what is called sponge-ratine, and their tango coat scheme is carried out un-relieved by any other tone. One dress has the skirt and coat built of tango colored sponge-ratine, with deep intersections of satin in the same hue, the collar to the waist being of the smooth satin. When the coat was opened up, however, it had a lining of Vertan satin. "Giverny" whipcord is the material which is to be most popular in the coming months with facings of white corded silk or brocade in different colorings. There is also to be a run on tulle, notably black, for coats, skirts, dresses and even liners. As a rule the skirt is in the tulle, while the coat is short to the waist almost, is of velvet in bright tints with trimmings and facings of black tulle. White tulle pattern.

ed with Futurist roses in China blue or vivid pinks is to be popular with the dancing girl who is to have shoes of the color of the roses, and white tulle is being used extensively for negligees and tea gowns, the latter having cloud-like draperies of tulle over the shoulders and sleeves and falling down the back to the hems almost.

Luncheon for Colonial Dames

Invitations have been issued to the members of the Colonial Dames of America for a luncheon at Hamon

Common Sense

If you tell a man you believe he is honest, and if you treat him square, ninety-nine times out of one hundred you will find that he'll live up to your opinion of him. That's a fact.
Some people wonder how Day can afford to trust everybody without demanding security or interest and a whole lot of other foggy things. They lose sight of the fact that Day means it when he says: "We trust the people." Day's gradual payment plan is nothing more than common business sense. Day has capitalized common sense, and his up-to-date, vigorous, courageous business policy gives genuine advantages to everybody who uses it.
